Building the Future--Construction theme

Butterfly Ball

Camelot

Camp (name of organization)--Decorations look like summer camp

Casablanca

Childhood Dreams

Christmas Around The World--Dinner tables decorated with Christmas décor from various countries; Christmas trees and wreaths serve as decorations; School events can have children create ornaments to decorate the trees for parents to buy.

Clue--Recreate this game with silent auction sections named for the different rooms, like the Conservatory, The Dining Room, etc. Volunteers or hired actors dress as the suspects and show the items during the live auction.

Come Sail Away

Cowboy Beach—Beach decor and guests dress in casual western wear, sundresses and boots

Dancing With The Stars--Include local celebrities as dancers and have your guests vote for their favorite dance team or dancers. Sell votes to raise additional funds.

Denim and Diamonds

Matters of the Heart

Medieval Times

Monopoly--A local high school used this theme years ago and called it BLOpoly. Use either the original street names, railroads, and utilities or create your own inspired by the community and neighborhood that your organization serves. These can be used to name the silent auctions and even live auction packages. Centerpieces can be designed to represent the different markers in the game, i.e., the thimble, top hat, iron, and Scottie dog. A "Community Chest" raffle can be sold during the silent auction. Declare the winner at the end of the evening.
